

dead diary,

i woke up at 8 in the morning and i escaped outside to explore the forest and the surroundings. i enjoyed very much the views on the lake, and there were also many big houses and big cars in Schwanenwerder but when i grow up, i will not have such big house nor car because they pollute a lot the environment. then i came back, took a shower because my mom says it is important to smell ok to make new friends (that's why uncle Charles is often alone), and ate my breakfast outside (toasts with chocolate spread, my favorite!).

then, it was the moment to start the first activity so i did not have time to brush my teeth. we first prepared the questions we will ask to the two politicians we will meet tomorrow morning.

after the break, my friends and i threw a tantrum to sit under the sun for the next activity, and the nice organizers accepted!

we all gave many exciting and creative ideas of interventions we could realize during the end of the week.

then it was lunch time, i ate two plates of delicious green curry and i also ate too many sweets (but i brushed my teeth, this time).

after a good nap in the sun, it was time for practical workshop, outside again.

we were taught how to make nice graffiti drawings and we were also allowed to cut out real posters to invent new ones. at first, i did not know what to do, but after a while watching my friends, i finally had my own idea of funny poster to make. several people said that my artwork was nice and that made me feel happy. i also helped my friend with her creation.

the practical workshop was so fun that we did not want to stop until it was almost time for dinner! some people went near the lake to watch the sunset before eating. the barbecue was really tasty, we ate outside again even though it was dark.

finally, we met one last time to decide which interventions we will prepare and to form groups for the different ideas.

some people gathered to play some games before going to bed. meanwhile, here i am, writing the daily diary.

good night!
